

Clinical Preceptor Course

Programme Overview

This course aims to provide participants with the essential knowledge, skills, and attributes for the role of a clinical preceptor for newly recruited nurses and nursing students from preregistration or pre-enrolment courses

Aim

This course aims to prepare and develop nurses for their role in welcoming, integrating, supervising, facilitating, and assessing nursing students and/or new nurses into the team and place of work.

Course Structure

- Blended learning approach with web-based learning, tutorial, discussion, role play and simulation based learning and on-the-job training (OJT)
- Theoretical component: 11 hours
Clinical component: 2 hours

Target Audience

Registered Nurses and Enrolled Nurses with minimal clinical experience of 2 years

Schedule

Monthly

Certificate of Completion

Will be awarded at the end of the course

For more information, please contact:

SNE Wang Xiao Bei at email
xiao\_bei\_wang@nuhs.edu.sg